What is the No Hate Speech Movement?

The No Hate Speech Movement is a youth campaign led by the Council of Europe Youth Department seeking to mobilise young people to combat hate speech and promote human rights online. Launched in 2013, it was rolled out at the national and local levels through national campaigns in 45 countries. The movement will remain active beyond 2017 through the work of various national campaigns, online activists and partners.

What will you find in this site?

This website provides information about the campaign and the resources developed to prevent, counter and produce alternative narratives to hate speech. Hate speech remains an issue of major concern for human rights in Europe; this website also provides information about the other work of the Council of Europe alongside the youth campaign and, we hope, inspiration for everyone concerned with upholding human rights online.
